

BILIOUSNESS

—is caused by inaction of the liver. The liver becomes engorged, congested and inflamed, and the bile instead of being properly excreted by the intestines is taken up by the blood. There are griping pains in the abdomen, headache and dizziness and you suffer from what is known as a bilious attack. There is a continual headache, the tongue is coated and the whole system is out of order. There are a great many supposed to be sure cures for biliousness on the market, but your physician will tell you that the best one is

RIPANS TABLETS.

The dose is one tabule after meals, continuing until the bilious attacks cease to occur. There is one point that should be remembered in buying Ripans—you know what you are taking—the formula is good enough to make public to yourself and to your physician. The formula is Rhubarb, Ipecac, Peppermint, Aloes, Nux Vomica and Soda, all of which are old and tried remedies for bilious complaints. We here give the opinion of Dr. E. F. Newton, one of Boston's leading physicians, regarding the formula of Ripans Tablets: "I think the formula an exceptionally good one, and a good deal more to the point and better than many written by so-called very professional doctors, who claim that nothing is orthodox but their own. I am always ready to get points from any source."

FUNNY--
Isn't it—how some people will worry and fret because they need things about the house and haven't the money to buy them with? Some folks seem to look for trouble—never happy unless they are miserable. Their next door neighbor has a house full of nice furniture—every room is neatly carpeted—and he isn't in any better circumstances than they are; he bought the Furniture and the Matting—and the Refrigerator of us—on credit—and he comes in here once a week or once a month and pays a little something on them—we didn't ask him to sign a note—nor to pay any interest—and we won't ask YOU. SUBURBAN NEWS

ANACOSTIA.
The Easter ball, which was also, the last for the season, for the entertainment of the patients at St. Elizabeth's Asylum, which was held on Monday night, was one of the most delightful affairs of the kind ever given at the institution. The large dining hall, which, outside of the pension building, contains more floor space that can be devoted to dancing in any other building in the District, was beautifully decorated with flags, bunting, growing plants and flowers, and hundreds of patients and their attendants participated. At the close of the ball refreshments of an elaborate character were dispensed to all present. The music for the occasion was by one of the city bands, and contained more than usual attractive selections. The amusements during the past season have been under the supervision of Dr. Simpson, and it is believed that the success of the institution, and have succeeded beyond his expectations.

The Hillside Citizens' Association has, through its officers, tendered its assistance to the Anacostia Citizens' Association in the matter of securing free mail delivery for the residents of the two towns, and it is probable that President George and Vice President Johnson of the Hillside Association will meet the Anacostia committee, Messrs. R. B. Buckley, Julius W. Tolson and George F. Pyles, tomorrow and the joint committee make a call on the post office authorities in reference to the subject. A delay in the matter of the increase of the mail service at Anacostia to eighteen trips per week from the Washington office in the Green Pasture has been caused, occasioned on account of the difficulty in reaching Contractor Jackson, who has the contract for transporting the mail to and from Anacostia and other towns in the vicinity, his home being in Georgia and his business interests so great that he is frequently away from his home. It is said that Mr. Jackson controls the greater part of the star route service of the United States, and that he has secured, either by purchase or otherwise, the franchise for the route.

A meeting to consider the present aspect of the Green Pasture has been called to take place at the Hillside A. M. E. Church tomorrow night.

A number of witnesses from Bladensburg and Hyattsville have been summoned to be present at the trial and give their testimony.
